Columbus Police 3rd Annual Basketball Bootcamp

On Saturday, October 27, 2018, the Columbus Division of Police will host a high school basketball boot-camp at the James G. Jackson Police Academy at 1000 N. Hague Avenue.

Ohio State University great, NBA standout & CBS Sports basketball analyst Clark Kellogg is the guest speaker. He's scheduled to address the student-athletes at 12:30pm. This part of the bootcamp is open to the media & public.

Bootcamp for South High School's boys basketball team begins at 11am.

Bootcamp for Marion Franklin & South High School's girls basketball teams begins at 4pm.

CPD's Basketball Bootcamp mission is to foster leadership skills of student athletes, teach the importance of working hand-in-hand with local law enforcement to improve the community and establish a foundation of trust with inner city youth and inner city communities through the game of basketball.
